

Can I get a witness?

“Our witness remains true to our founders’ vision: spiritual empowerment, sound scholarship, and ministerial training rooted in practical experience. Let us, together, rejoice as we witness to all we have heard and seen and touched concerning the word of life.”

-Jeff Carter, President

In Bethany classrooms, courses, and teaching

- ◆ Jeff Carter became Bethany’s tenth president July 1, 2013, and was officially inaugurated in a celebration in Nicarry Chapel on March 29, 2014.
- ◆ “Focused and Flexible” is the tag line for Bethany’s new curriculum, first offered in fall 2013. Developed with attention to the evolving roles and nature of ministry and the church, the curriculum (1) enables students to specialize in areas that match their interests and calling and (2) offers various options for them to do so.

In the world

- ◆ Dedicated volunteers from Mid-Atlantic and Southern Ohio Districts helped renovate several houses toward the goal of establishing a Bethany Neighborhood for residential and Connections student housing near campus.
- ◆ Building and maintaining relationships in a variety of venues has been a priority for the administration this year through presidential travel, restructured recruitment efforts, and gatherings as part of the campaign.

Bethany Theological Seminary equips spiritual and intellectual leaders with an Incarnational education for ministering, proclaiming, and living out God’s shalom and Christ’s peace in the church and world.
