TRIM UPDATE

Christianity in the Ancient and Medieval Worlds

As I reflect back on my experience in taking Ancient & Medieval Christianity through the Brethren Academy TRIM program, I realize that I have learned so much more than the content of the course. Under the instruction and guidance of Ken Rogers, professor of historical studies, this course that I at first approached as primarily a requirement to complete became a fascinating and enlightening experience. I knew there would be much content to learn and plenty of reading to do. I approached it as something I would have to learn but I questioned whether this course would really impact my development as a pastor. I didn't appreciate how wrong I was.

Certainly, there was much content to learn as we covered 1500 years of Christian history. The interesting personalities and influential thinkers who influenced the various theological movements of Christianity were fascinating to study. The fact that many of them lost their lives because of their faith shed light on the very integral role Christianity played in the overall story of human history during the fifteen centuries this course covered. I gained a new awareness of the simple truth that history can never be fully understood apart from the positive and negative influence of the church. However, I was unquestionably most impacted by my unexpected realization that the history of ancient and medieval Christianity truly does have a significant impact on today's world.

Having taken this course, I clearly see that one cannot fully understand our own times apart from the influence of many who have come before us. By being able to see the progression of Christian history through so many centuries, one can much better appreciate the journey that has brought us to today. With a better understanding of how the church has arrived at our place in the story of Christianity, we can move forward with an understanding and with wisdom that we would not otherwise possess. I am grateful to both the Brethren Academy and Professor Ken Rogers for expanding my horizons through this course.

Writing for Ministry

Holly White

The Writing in Ministry class came up on the course schedule, and the first thing that I thought was "I need this." My family came to mind when I read what the class was about. I remember the long nights of help that my mother, sister, and then my wife had given me. Holly White does a great job at helping each student to better themselves in writing. No matter what your skill level, you may want to look at taking this course. Holly brings a different look at many different areas of your writing. The class feedback was great as well. Each of us was working toward the goal of better writing and finding ideas of how to write. I am very thankful for the tools that this class equipped me with. Here's to better writing!

The Brethren Academy course Preaching and Teaching Peace, Justice, and Creation Care was offered on the McPherson College campus this past November 12-15. It was the inaugural session for this class, as it is new to the Academy list of offerings. Instructor David Radcliff led the six students and a CEU participant in exploring the biblical basis for addressing social issues; Jesus's call to live justly and his manner of embodying and proclaiming justice, peace, and simplicity; the urgency of Christian engagement with these matters; reasons these aren't regularly dealt with in congregations; and tools and strategies for doing so.

Students came from as far away as New Mexico and Indiana—and Arizona, where David Radcliff resides and serves as director of New Community Project (www.newcommunityproject.org).

SeBAH-CoB NEWS Seminario Biblico Anabautista Hispano de la Iglesia de Los Hermanos

Pennsylvania SeBAH students gather for conversation

Some thirty Hispanic pastors, current and potential SeBAH-CoB students, and district representatives gathered recently in the Atlantic Northeast District (ANE) for a productive conversation regarding the effectiveness and future of their ministry training program. Students in this particular cohort have endured many complex difficulties, frustrations, and disappointments during their course of study due to unfortunate factors contributed and experienced by the students themselves, the administration, and the professor. Everyone at the meeting had the opportunity to express their perspectives and all acknowledged the difficulties. While other options had been explored as alternatives by district leadership, the group expressed a willingness to continue their studies through the Academy, realizing that the SeBAH-CoB program has many strengths. Students receive solid biblical and theological instruction from an Anabaptist-Pietist heritage. The program also fulfills educational requirements that can lead to ordination. The professors have been well qualified and the curriculum excellent. In fact, students enjoyed interacting via Skype with Dr. Dan Ulrich, the Bethany Seminary professor who is prepared to teach next fall's New Testament Exegesis: Gospel of Matthew class.

Good news was shared that another cohort is ready to form, which will include three students from the Pacific Southwest District and potentially students from ANE and the Virginia District. As soon as their district ministry commissions officially recommend the students, an orientation can be scheduled. We rejoice in the active participation, daily dedication, and strong commitment to ministry evidenced in the twenty-one active SeBAH students. May God bless them richly, as "forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, [they] press on toward the goal for the prize of the heavenly call of God in Christ Jesus" (Phil 3:13-14).

Estudiantes de SeBAH-CoB de Pennsylvania se reúnen para conversarse

Algunos treinta pastores hispanos, estudiantes de SeBAH-COB actuales y potenciales, y representantes del distrito se reunieron recientemente en el Distrito Atlántico Noreste (ANE) para tener una conversación productiva sobre la eficacia y el futuro de su programa de entrenamiento ministerio. Los y las estudiantes en esta cohorte particular, han sufrido muchas dificultades complejas, frustraciones y decepciones durante su curso actual, debido a factores desafortunados contribuidos y experimentados por los propios alumnos, la administración, y el profesor. En la reunión el grupo tuvo la oportunidad de expresar sus puntos de vista y todas reconocieron las dificultades. Mientras que otras opciones se habían exploradas por el liderazgo del distrito como alternativas, el grupo expresó su voluntad de continuar sus estudios a través del programa de la Academia, al darse cuenta de que el programa SeBAH-CoB tiene muchos puntos fuertes. Los y las estudiantes reciben instrucción bíblica y teológica sólida a partir de un patrimonio Anabautista-Pietista. El programa también cumple con los requisitos educativos que pueden llevar a la ordenación. Los profesores han sido bien calificados y el currículo excelente. De hecho los estudiantes disfrutaron de la interacción a través de Skype con Dr. Dan Ulrich, profesor del Seminario de Betania, que se prepara para enseñar el Evangelio de Mateo el próximo otoño.

Buena noticia fue compartida que otra cohorte está listo para formarse el cual incluirá tres estudiantes del Distrito Pacífico Suroeste junto con potenciales estudiantes de ANE y posiblemente del distrito Virgina. Tan pronto como sus comisiones ministeriales de distrito recomiendan oficialmente a los y las estudiantes, una orientación se puede programar. Nos regocijamos en la participación activa, la dedicación diaria, y un fuerte compromiso con el ministerio se evidencia en los veintidós estudiantes activos de SeBAH-CoB. Que Dios los bendiga ricamente como “olvidando ciertamente lo que queda atrás, y extendiéndome a lo que está delante, prosigo a la meta, al premio del supremo llamamiento de Dios en Cristo Jesús” (Fil 3:13-14).

SUSTAINING MINISTERIAL EXCELLENCE ADVANCED SEMINAR CAMP LEADERS COHORT

The first retreat for the SMEAS-Camp Leaders Cohort took place November 19-21, 2015, at Shepherd's Spring Outdoor Ministry and Retreat Center (Mid-Atlantic District). Participants had attended the annual Outdoor Ministries Association Retreat and stayed onsite for this new continuing education program.

Content for SMEAS includes components from the Sustaining Pastoral Excellence Vital Pastors and Advanced Foundations for Church Leadership tracks administered by the Brethren Academy and the Advanced Pastoral Seminar offered by Bethany Seminary in the past. Participants will meet biannually for two years to

- integrate the spiritual, academic, emotional, relational, and physical components of a healthy lifestyle;
- develop a greater self-understanding of themselves and their ministries;
- reexamine the church and its mission in today's culture;
- explore theological topics through presentations and dialogue with seminary faculty, denominational leaders, and seminar members;
- participate in community with other ministers;
- create strategies for personal and professional change.

Between in-person sessions, the camp leaders will interact via Moodle and Skype.

Tara Hornbacker, professor of ministry formation, missional church, and evangelism at Bethany Seminary, joined Julie Hostetter in providing leadership for this initial event. Tara led sessions exploring spiritual disciplines and facilitated conversations focusing on each leader's spiritual autobiography presentation. She will also lead follow-up Moodle discussions on Strengthening the Soul of Your Leadership: Seeking God in the Crucible of Ministry by Ruth Haley Barton.

Greetings From the Brethren Academy Staff

God of hope, come! Enter into every human heart that cries out for a glimpse of your love, for a sign of your welcoming presence, for a taste of your happiness. Be the one who calms the restless and gentles the ache of the human journey.

God of hope, come! Be the Morning Star in our midst, the Light that can never go out, the Beacon of Hope guiding our way to you. Come into our midst and make of our lives a home, where your everlasting goodness resonates with assuring love and vigorous hope.

from Joyce Rupp's prayer "The Gift of Hope," published in her book
Out of the Ordinary: Prayers, Poems and Reflections for Every Season, Ave Maria Press, 2010

Sisters and Brothers,

In this season of waiting, watch and wondering, may our hearts, minds, and spirits be open to Christ's presence coming among us once again, may we respond to others with acts of compassion and generosity, and may our lives reflect God's shalom and Christ's peace.

With our wishes for a blessed Advent, joyous Christmas, and peace-filled New Year,
