PROGRAM OVERVIEW

Education For Shared Ministry (EFSM) Educación para un Ministerio Compartido (EPMC)

Graduation from EFSM or EPMC meets the educational requirements for commissioning in the Church of the Brethren.

What is EFSM/EPMC?

Education for a Shared Ministry (EFSM) and its Spanish-language counterpart (EPMC) are ministry training programs designed to address the challenges and celebrate the strengths of both small churches and specialized ministries. By providing training within the local congregation, both churches and their leadership develop new vision and purpose. This program is designed to be completed in 3 years.

The objectives of the program are as follows:

- To provide churches with a model that affirms the congregation as an effective base for training in ministry, through the education of its pastor and the equipping of its lay leaders
- To enable small churches to engage in redefining and living out their mission with greater sense of vitality, purpose and connection
- To equip persons in specialized ministries with a solid grounding in biblical, theological and historical studies, while tailoring a ministry skills program which addresses their specific calling and enhances their knowledge of other aspects of ministry.
- To train ministry teams by developing ministry skills, increasing biblical knowledge and theological reflection, and exploring the challenges and opportunities of functioning as a team

Who offers the EFSM/EPCM Program?

The Brethren Academy for Ministerial Leadership (BAML) administers the program for three Church of the Brethren partners:

- Bethany Theological Seminary
- Church of the Brethren, Inc.
- The 24 districts of the Church of the Brethren

Who Can Participate in EFSM/EPMC?

EFSM/EPMC is for small congregations that lack the financial resources to call a full-time, seminary-trained pastor. Some of these congregations face additional challenges such as geographic isolation or language barriers. In order to thrive, these families of faith need support and their leaders need accessible training.

EFSM/EPMC is for large congregations with lay leaders serving in specialized areas, like music, visitation or Christian education. Often these leaders have talent and heart but lack formal education in ministry.

EFSM/EPMC is for congregations exploring the option of “team ministry”, calling out several members to serve together to meet the needs of the congregation. These are teams of enthusiastic, gifted people who need training to help them work together effectively for the sake of the whole church.

EFSM/EPMC is for congregations, both English-speaking and Spanish-speaking, who seek to train ministers and grow together in ways that deepen their Biblical understanding, invite them into theological reflection and develop their skills for shared ministry.

What Does EFSM/EPMC Cost?

The total cost of the EFSM/EPMC program will depend on the progress of the congregation through the program (i.e. how many Learning Units the congregation chooses to complete each year).

Below are the various costs involved in the program.

- Enrollment Fee: $360, due at the time of application. For congregations with 3 or more Ministers-in-Training (MIT), the enrollment fees are capped at $1,000 and divided by the number of students.
- Biannual Congregation Fee: $122.50 for congregations with 1-3 MIT; $177.50 for congregations with 4-6 MIT, billed in January and July
- Biannual District $122.50 for congregations with 1-3 MIT; $177.50 for congregations with 4-6 MIT, billed in January and July
- Course fee for any TRIM courses taken: $300 each
- Cost of books, any travel related to Experiences

Each EFSM/EPMC congregation is eligible for two $850.00 subsidies over the course of their studies which may be used to attend outside, required events. Each Minister-in-Training is eligible for one-time assistance with Annual Conference expenses.

Biannual fees will be billed in January and July, based on the student's date of completion. January payment is due, in full, March 1. July payment is due, in full, September 1.

A student is considered completed when they have finished, submitted and received evaluations on all their coursework, experiences and paperwork, including the exit exam. At that stage of the program, a student will receive an official letter of completion from the Brethren Academy. If that letter is issued by June 30, that student will not be billed in July. Students who complete by December 31 will not be billed in January.

ADMISSIONS PROCESS FACT SHEET

Education For Shared Ministry (EFSM)/ Educación para un Ministerio Compartido (EPMC)

This process applies to the traditional EFSM/EPMC Track. Variations occur in the Team and Specialized Ministry tracks. Please contact the Brethren Academy for descriptions of those processes.

The admissions process for EFSM/EPMC consists of the following steps:

- 1. Recommendation: The district determines whether to recommend a congregation for EFSM/EPMC, preferably in consultation with the district ministry commission. A high school diploma (or the equivalent) is a prerequisite for entrance into the EFSM/EPMC program.
- 2. Prospective Congregation Profile: The district executive/minister fills out and signs the Prospective Congregation Profile and sends it to the Brethren Academy office. The entrance process includes a background check for each Minister-in-Training, initiated by the district through the Church of the Brethren Office of Ministry. The profile requires the date the background check is submitted to the district office along with the initials of the district executive/minister.
3. The Brethren Academy sends two items:
  - 1) an EFSM/EPMC application to the prospective student, who will complete and return it to the Brethren Academy, and
  - 2) a congregational covenant to the participating congregation, who will complete and return it to the Brethren Academy along with the enrollment fee of $360 (districts vary in their determination of who pays this enrollment fee).

The application deadline for both is June 1. The student application and the congregational covenant must both be submitted in order to be admitted to the program. As an application is considered, Brethren Academy staff may interview the Minister-in-Training (MIT) by telephone or video conferencing.

- 4. Orientation Attendance: Upon acceptance into the program, the EFSM Minister-in-Training attends an orientation session at Bethany Theological Seminary that includes the beginning of an eight-week online course. The orientation registration deadline is strictly observed. The student is responsible for travel expenses to and from Richmond, Indiana and for books required for the online course. All other expenses during orientation are paid for by the Brethren Academy.
(EPMC Orientation is done onsite, alongside the Congregational Workshop Weekend.)

5. Supervising Pastor: In consultation with the district executive, the Minister-in-Training will discern an appropriate individual to serve as his or her supervising pastor

6. Congregational Workshop Weekend: This is held at the participating church and is led by a Brethren Academy staff member, who provides orientation for the supervising pastor (SP), the minister(s)-in-training (MIT), the laity-in-training (LIT) and the entire church family. This weekend marks the official beginning of their work together as an EFSM/EPMC congregation.

The 2022 EFSM orientation session will be July 26-28, 2022 (Tuesday – Thursday) at Bethany Theological Seminary. Registration deadline: June 1, 2022.

POSITION DESCRIPTIONS

Education For Shared Ministry (EFSM)/ Educación para un Ministerio Compartido (EPMC)

These position descriptions apply to the traditional EFSM/EPMC Track. Variations occur in the Team and Specialized Ministry tracks. Please contact the Brethren Academy for those position descriptions.

EFSM/EPMC mobilizes the resources of congregations for ministry. It features educational components for a Minister-in-Training or Ministers-in-Training, 4-6 assisting laypersons, and the whole congregation. (See “The Congregations”)

1. Minister-in-Training (MIT) Calling a person or persons to be the Minister(s)-in-Training will follow historical patterns within the Church of the Brethren (i.e. cooperative participation involving the related district and the local congregation). Qualifications for election as a MIT include:

- Demonstrated Christian discipleship.
- Maturity and demonstrated leadership, or exceptional potential for ministry.
- Willingness to serve the congregation issuing the call and live within the community.
- A sense of personal calling.
- Eagerness to participate in the program of study.
- Agreement with the concept of a self-supported ministry.

2. Laity-in-Training (LIT) 4-6 additional congregational members who will share central and basic ministerial functions with the MIT.

3. Supervising Pastor (SP): A nearby pastor who has a seminary degree and who is willing to work in a supervisory and support role with the MIT. Such a pastor may be from the Church of the Brethren or from another denomination.

4. District Representative (DR): An individual appointed by the district to facilitate communication between the congregation and the district. The supervising pastor may fill this role, or a second person may be appointed.

Congregational Training Group (CTG):

All the above parties constitute the CTG which will meet once a month to:

1. Help design and evaluate the educational experience. Specifically, the CTG is to develop, with the MIT, the learning units located within the congregation.
2. Plan, coordinate and review the shared ministry of the minister(s) and lay leaders. Coordination of study and ministry will always be sought.

EDUCATION PROGRAMS FOR PARTICIPANTS

Education For Shared Ministry (EFSM)/ Educación para un Ministerio Compartido (EPMC)

The program of training for the MIT consists of eight (8) learning units and six (6) experiences, equivalent to 36 semester hours of college-level work. Each learning unit and experience must be approved both by the Congregational Training Group and by the appropriate Brethren Academy staff.

Learning Units (8) are independent studies most of which are carried out within the local congregation. Each of these units will include reading, research, journal writing, and related congregational projects and experiences. One to three of these units are to be completed by taking a BAML course.<sup>1</sup>

Bible and Theology (4 units)

1. Old Testament Survey
2. New Testament Survey
3. Basic Brethren Beliefs
4. Christian Church History

<sup>2</sup> Orientation for the minister(s)-in-training is done at the local church, in conjunction with the Congregational Workshop Weekend.

Laity-in-Training (LIT)

The program of training for the LIT consists of working as a team with the MIT to guide the congregation in its total ministry. In addition, the LIT will

1. Complete at least two LIT study units, coordinated with the MIT's Learning Units

7. Maintain an ongoing record of participation

Local Congregation

The educational program for the local church focuses on congregational awareness, redefining of mission, and training for a shared ministry with a pastor or pastors. This will require regular worship, prayer and faith formation, self-study and goal setting, and participation in the wider church through representation at District and Annual Conferences.

The Congregation will:

- Call a person(s) to be the Minister(s)-in-Training.
- Call four to six (4-6) lay persons to serve as Laity-in-Training
- Participate in the Congregational Workshop Weekend
- Participate in the Brethren Connection Experience.
- Meet annually to receive the annual report of the Congregational Training Group, participate in an evaluation experience, and give approval to the CTG's plans for the next year's training focus.

Anticipated Results

Upon successful completion of the EFSM/EPMC program, the MIT will have fulfilled the educational requirements needed for commissioned ministry.

The Minister(s)-in-Training will demonstrate:

- Basic knowledge in the areas of Old Testament, New Testament, Brethren beliefs, and Christian church history.
- Basic performance abilities in pastoral care, teaching, preaching, and administration.

DISTRICT EXECUTIVE RESPONSIBILITIES

Education For Shared Ministry (EFSM)/ Educación para un Ministerio Compartido (EPMC)

Preliminary Responsibilities

1. Consult with the District Ministry Commission/District Board to secure district backing for involvement in EFSM / EPMC, including budgeting of district support for program.
2. Contact the church board of congregations to determine interest in EFSM/EPMC.
3. Submit the Prospective Congregations Profile for each congregation wishing to enter EFSM/EPMC
4. Promote EFSM/EPMC as a potential program for ministry training and congregational renewal in selected congregations.

Responsibilities after Congregation is Admitted to the Program

1. Serve as a link between congregations and the BAML Staff.
2. Assure a Covenant of Congregational Participation/Contrato de la Congregacion Participante is returned to the Brethren Academy from each congregation.
3. In consultation with the minister-in-training, secure a seminary-trained person to serve as a Supervising Pastor. Clarify how the district will reimburse the supervisor for expenses.
4. Secure someone at the district level to serve as the official district representative to the Congregational Training Group, preferably a member of the District Board or the District Ministry Commission. (The supervising pastor may fill this role.)
5. Contact the district representative to confirm the frequency and method by which a report will be made to the district.
6. Participate, as able, in the commissioning of the participating congregation during the Congregational Workshop Weekend.
7. Prepare an evaluation of EFSM/EPMC in each congregation at conclusion of the program.
8. Work with district officials to determine appropriate recognition of training when completed, and take part in final celebration of accomplishments

Cost to District

1. Districts pay a biannual participation fee for each EFSM/EPMC congregation which is billed in January and July,
2. Reimburse EFSM/EPMC Supervisors for expenses as agreed.

SUPERVISING PASTORS AND DISTRICT REPRESENTATIVES

Education For Shared Ministry (EFSM)/ Educación para un Ministerio Compartido (EPMC)

Supervising Pastor

The Supervising Pastor plays an indispensable role in EFSM/EPMC. Because EFSM/EPMC does not have a ready-made curriculum but rather encourages each training group to develop its own learning agenda, it is important to have a skilled person on location to guide that process. The supervisor is that person. And because EFSM/EPMC is concerned not only with academic content but also with preparing trainees for ministry, it is important to have an experienced practitioner to guide that preparation. Also, EFSM/EPMC is a program for congregations who care about quality relationships, so it is important to have a supervisor who cares for the life of the people in a congregation. Coach, friend, colleague, consultant, resource person — all are applicable to the person we call the “supervisor.”

Qualifications for Supervisors

1. A minimum of an MDiv level of theological training is preferable.
2. Pastoral experience in the area of focus for the MIT: small congregation, specialized ministry, team ministry, etc. Experience can be in the Church of the Brethren or another Christian communion.
3. Desire and ability to work constructively in a supervisory relationship that encourages others to grow and develop.
4. Commitment to the goals and basic vision of shared ministry as delineated in the program.
5. Freedom to devote the time required (8-10 hours per month) to the responsibilities outlined above over a three-year period, as approved by the supervisor's employing congregation where necessary.

Training for Supervisors

Each person named as a supervisor is expected to take part in the Congregational Workshop Weekend for EFSM/EPMC, including the district representative, the BAML Staff, the supervising pastor, the Congregational Training Group, and all others involved in the joint program. At this event, supervisors will become familiar with the learning process of EFSM/EPMC, meet and begin working with their trainees, and explore the meaning and character of supervision in this program.

The district in which the EFSM/EPMC congregation resides will arrange for the services of an EFSM/EPMC supervising pastor. Some districts may choose to provide a small stipend for supervisors as well as cover travel expenses. Other districts may choose to negotiate with the pastoral supervisors to serve on a volunteer basis but reimburse all or part of their travel expenses.

Responsibilities of Supervisors

1. Assist the MIT in developing learning unit proposals to bring to the CTG for feedback, modification and approval.
2. Negotiate and follow through with MIT on assignments, schedules, and test and review procedures for learning units, as well as prepare a supervisory assessment of each completed learning unit.
3. Consult with the MIT once a month to evaluate progress on learning units, discuss pastoral experiences of MIT, and provide feedback and support. If the MIT and supervisor live more than 25 miles from each other, consultations may be by telephone or video conference every other month.
4. Prepare the agenda for and chair the monthly meetings of the CTG during the first year of the program and assist the MIT in assuming these responsibilities for the remainder of the program.
5. Submit to the BAML Staff once a year a report on the progress of the MIT and the work of the CTG. A report form is provided for this purpose. Normally this report should be submitted during the week following a CTG meeting.
6. Notify the BAML Staff in the event of any unusual problems or circumstances related to the program.
7. Take part in special congregational events related to the program, including the two-day congregational workshop at the beginning of the program, the annual congregational business meeting at which the CTG's report and recommendations are received, and the celebration of the completion of the program at the end of the third year.
8. Serve as a consultant to the MIT and his or her congregation as they work through a congregational self-study and the process of goal setting.
9. Communicate with the District Representative the progress and needs of the MIT and the CTG, thereby allowing the District Representative to communicate with the District Executive, Ministry Commission, etc.

District Representative

In EFSM/EPMC, MITs complete most of their coursework as independent and congregational studies. This can lead to a sense of disconnect from the wider church. Following are the functions and responsibilities of the District Representative.

1. Provide a connection for these students to the larger district
2. Provide a link between the Congregational Training Group (CTG) and the district.
3. Assure that courses of study meet the district's requirements for credentialing and interpret the work of the CTG to district leadership.
4. Attend, as able, the significant portions of the Congregational Workshop Weekend.
5. Meet periodically with the Supervising Pastor and the MIT to offer support and monitor progress.
6. Attend meetings of the CTG at least twice a year.
7. Report the progress of the EFSM congregation to the District (Board, Ministry Commission) as arranged in consultation with the District Executive.
