Course Description:

This course explores preaching as a sacred and imaginative practice that shapes the life of a community. Students will learn to craft sermons with clarity and creativity and develop an authentic preaching voice rooted in pastoral awareness. Through theological reflection, narrative work, and guided practice, participants will gain the skills and confidence to preach with compassion, conviction, and a deep sense of connection to their listeners.

Learning Objectives:

To successfully complete this course students will demonstrate competency in preparing sermons that :

- Exegete scripture faithfully for preaching.
- Craft clearly focused and communicated sermons.
- Preach with pastoral awareness and cultural sensitivity.
- Develop an authentic preaching voice and embodied presence.
- Offer and receive constructive feedback.
- Practice effective delivery techniques, including pacing, tone, gesture, and the intentional use of silence.

In addition to bringing to class a sample sermon of about 5 minutes they have recently preached; students will prepare and present 1 sermon manuscript and sermon in person during class.
